nidenzan 'stand up'
zedo 'sit down'
tsen'an 'thank you'

LESSON 4

*notehina dina kwlo zraer
2 miki'da*

1. Review - 5 minutes

Have the class repeat each of the words below after you and tell you what each one means in English:

do'ent'a? (how are you?)
iszrun (I am fine)
se nich'i'in iszrun (I am fine too)
idle (cold)
tšima' (hot)
nidats'a ni'uzra'? (what is your name?)
si'uzra' (my name)
nida' (give it to me)
na' (here, take it)

ts'ihulona dina

Ask individual students the questions Nidats'a ni'uzra'? and Do'ent'a? and have them answer you.

2. New words - 5 minutes

Motion for one of the students to stand up and say:

Nidenzan.

and have him or her stand up. Motion for him or her to come to you and say:

One'.

and have him or her come to you. Motion for him or her to sit down and say:

Zedo.

and have him or her sit down.
Give the same three commands to different students.

3. Commands - 10 minutes

Give an item (pencil, chalk...) to a student who is sitting and say Na'. Then say the following commands and questions and have the student do what you say, or answer your question.

Nidenzan. (Student stands up)
One'. (Student comes to you.)
Nidats'a ni'uzra'? (Student says their name and si'uzra')

Do'ent'a?

(Student answers iszrun, idle...)

Nida'.

(Student gives you the object)

Tsen'an.

(Student does nothing)

Zedo.

(Student sits down)

Say na' to another student and give him or her the object. Repeat the above commands and questions with that student. Repeat the whole process with each student in the classroom.

4. Students give commands - 5 minutes

In the remaining class time, have individual students get up and say commands and questions to other students or you.
